What I thought was an impossible search has not only become possible, but a reality! Thanks to Kinsolving Investigations, I have been in contact with my birth mother and my brother. They were both very receptive to me and I am looking forward to learning everything I can about them. For those who are skeptible about paying a searcher to your family... I can now tell you first hand after being scammed by another company that Kinsolving is NOT a scam! If you DO decide to pay a searcher, Kinsolving would be who I recommend.

They were professional and caring, and they provided me with my birth mothers name, address, and cell phone number. Also my brother's name, address, and cell phone number. After 20 years of searching, I did not think it could be done. Thanks to Kinsolving, it WAS done! And I wish I would have found them a whole lot I wish everyone who reads this the best of luck weather they hire Kinsolving or work with search angels. Every adoptee deserves to know where they came from... And I'll keep you all in my prayers that you succeed! Thanks!

My bio 1/2 sister and her daughter and son came to visit yesterday for our first meeting. Kinsolving found Info Oct of this year. I was truly blessed to have the parents that adopted me.

It is with great pleasure that I share this with you. R and I met today, alone, for about two hours. The experience was excellent! It was everything I could have hoped for; emotional, friendly, loving, comfortable, interesting, informative, etc. Her life story is fascinating, she is a true survivor. Her life growing up as a child in Italy during WW 2 arriving in the US at age 15 alone, where she worked in a hair salon where she worked for 25 years, to our long awaited meeting today.

We look so much alike it is amazing. Similar mannerisms and speech though I have no accent. She is maybe 4'11" and C is eye to eye with her. And trust me, R is not shy or a push over!! And as luck would have it, my birthday is this weekend, R and I will celebrate together. Very cool! Will share more in time but

We can never Thank You Kinsolving and Chris Lee enough, when we hired you back in November, locating at the time my now husband's Birthmother in a mere 14 hours.. There could not of been any perfect of timing, for many circumstances at the time. With a heavy heart we tell you, 'his Birth Mother passed away yesterday morning {January 20,. We will always be thankful to had met h...er, spent some time getting to know her... Although we never learned 'The full TRUTH,' it seems what was most important to G, was just to find her and know who she was.

Overall this was an amazing search and find for many reasons... she will always be close in our hearts forever!

Thank you for giving me closure! My first Christmas wishing my birth sister a Merry Christmas! Oh the resemblance and similarities! We enjoy our phone conversations and plan to meet in the Spring. Priceless! I often feel "lost" at the computer with no reason to search! Merry Christmas!

After a quiet year of hoping Kinsolving would be able to complete my search I got news last week they did. I got all my info last night and I was amazed how much detail they provided to me. I am beyond grateful for you Kinsolving.

You have assisted me to unlock the door to an uncertian chapter in my life. I can only hope I will have a happy ending to this story after I make contact to share with you all.

Kinsolving I will forever be grateful. CRF 10/19

FYI - T and her mom met. It was good and they are keeping in touch. Her mom was in foster care when she became pregnant. The father was/is another foster care kid.

for now I am just enjoying the moment.
Kinsolving I finally got up the nerve to call my bio mom, & it was the BEST call I've ever made!
I'm Happy to report we connected, & I'm going into town this summer to see her!
Thanks again for everything! :) 1/13/13 TM

When it became apparent that she was pregnant, foster care moved A and her mom never knew where or saw him again. Foster care told her mom she had to give up the child.
I can't find any record of him anywhere..... I I wonder if you could. Thanks again for your help.
This has been a blessing and answer to alot of questions and troubles.
Thanks again.C.A.
