Kinsolving, Thank you all for the support and positive thoughts I am sure I could not have done it without you.
1/16/13 H.A

Hi Chris,
My birthmother and I have connected and I'm going into town this summer to see her! Thanks again for everything! :)
1/13/13 TM

My long lost nephew is found, and my niece and I have both had phone and email contact. Kinsolving made it possible.

His original Birth Certificate had so much bad info that he never would have found us...God is Good...Thank you Kinsolving Inv for what you did..Pictures will come when we meet in a couple of months...It was worth every dime, so don't hesitate to spend the money. We wouldn't have found him, I am not sure how kinsolving found him..
Too bad my Sister died before meeting her son, but she is smiling from heaven to know he is found and loved.

Dear Chris Lee,
In September of 1965, I sent back a contract I had received month earlier- I didn't even know if it was still valid. Several days later, you called and said, "I have found your mother". I asked you if she was alive and two days later, we had a long conversation via phone where you me my birth mother and how to contact her. It was my birthday.
You gave me my identity for my birthday. I have just finished writing a book about my experience of finding miss B.. I have mentioned you by name in my story as the professional searcher who made my connecting with my birth mother possible.

I do want to thank you for your role in this most significant area of my life.Sincerely, DR NY

Hi Chris,It has been a few years, 12 to be exact,

"If you dont start now you will never cross the finish line.
Be bold, choose to take action"

Chris!! Wow! It was amazing! Her mom answered the phone - I said the two opening sentences as you wrote, and when I said I gave birth to a baby girl on.... she said "you're my mom!" I am so grateful to Jesus Christ and you-- thank you for your support. I have three grandchildren? Her mom was crying as we talked and talked.
She was so happy that I had located her and that I had reached out! and reached out!
Thank you, thank you, thank you!!
She's going to send me pictures of the family.
God bless you!DR

Hi Chris, I hope this email finds you well. You may not remember me, but not so long ago you were successful in providing me with the contact information for finding my mother. I wanted to say thank you again as I have connected with her as well as my father and have wonderful relationships with both. My adoptive sister, who is also an adoptee, has been on the fence for awhile . I believe she is ready to take the step.
Thanks so much again.

Chris, this is incredible. I got your first email but was in shock for a while and my wife and I were trying to digest all the information.Her Dad, Mom and Aunt really seemed like adventuress people.

My goodness. I never thought this would be possible. It is a smallprice to pay for finally knowing. We found two pictures of my mother already through her one son's facebook page, and of course we know wha tthis son now looks like and her current husband. Can't find yet her other son.

If you want to share any of your thoughts/suggestions on how to approach her I am happy to chat about it. I am so nervous right now.

Kind Regards,RS

Hi Chris, I was sound asleep last night when you called and I wanted to thank both you and your staff for all your hard work with regards that you found my birthparents and what joy my family continues to bring to my life! finding my roots is the best thing I have ever done for myself!!!! And thanks again!

I have recently met a lady that has been searching for her birthmother for some time and has explored many avenues and still has no answer.

She lives in Mississippi and I have told her about you. Do you search in other states? Let me know and perhaps you can help her. She has much information including her bm's name which is so amazing to me. She is visiting with us this weekend so maybe we will hear from you before she leaves on Sunday.
Sincerely,N.B.

Chris.

I met with the family of MH in October and they could not have been more accepting of me.I have been alone for so long, I am thrilled to have a half-brother and sister. R and N look like their father and I am the only paintings, book of poems she wrote and many photos. R emailed this week that he is mailing copies of M's health records to me. I am truly blessed to be accepted and I know we will build a special relationship together. I appreciate all of your hard work. You will never know what it means to me.

I couldn't go to work today. I just had to stay home and review your report. My mom is coming over today so we can look at things. I found her picture on facebook and she looks just like all of us! I don't know how you can ever thank anyone enough for finding your sister Please know that this is truly the best gift we could have ever received.

We haven't called yet (it is still early and we need to think about the best way) but whatever her feelings are, we can deal with it. Knowing who she is and possibly developing a relationship with her over time will be the best thing that has happened for my mother in a long time.

THANK YOU LF

I just sat down and I can't thank you enough! I am still reading this but I want you to know that I will be forever grateful.
