Thank you SO much Chris. I checked my email that night before going to bed and saw all the info. Of course then I couldn't sleep. My aunt lives 7 miles from me. And I met my first I met my 1st cousin, unbeknownst to me 3 weeks ago at an art night function. How is that possible?! You must hear things like this all the time. Life is amazing. I would be so grateful for guidance and direction, since you have done this before!), to what is the best way to proceed next. Thank you for your generosity in working with me on the price, (and the friends' mother who gifted me the remaining money last week) and for solving what has been now a 21 year search. You have given me an incredible gift... the rest of my story.

Thank you.
Much love,
D

Hello,
I will always be so grateful that you found my birthdaughter in Hawaii. Since then, and your great guidance to know what to say on that first call, we have been getting to know each other. We are planning a visit to Hawaii this summer or early fall. But we have talked on the phone, and sent letters to each other. I have had so much fun putting together gifts and packages and pictures for her. So we are catching up on all the years missed. She said in her last letter, I am so glad that you found me, now I am not alone, I have a family. Now all the members of the family are getting familiar to her. She says I will write Aunt C, and Grandma E soon. She is so glad to have two brothers that are so glad to have a sister. It is wonderful and I am seeing a miracle, and so many prayers answered. It truly is a case of needed reunion, she has needed us too. Only she did not know we were all here searching for her for so many years. She did not know that she was even adopted. It turned out that her adopted mother is much older. M and I are 22 years apart. Her adopted mother is in her eighties. I am so glad that I can be here for M, and make her happy, and to feel safe and secure. You found her so fast, you were the last hope and you made our lives coming to a wonderful and new beginning.

Thank you so much!

Dear Chris, Kinsolving has made my life so much better since you found my daughter. I no longer have to wonder. I've been in contact, and she is so glad I found. She also wondered and had questions. We are both so thankful for your service. With the amount of information I gave you, I did not think it possible to find but you proved me wrong. Thank -you so much! S/PA

Well, 4 yrs later and I am thanking you again. We are so fortunate for your help. All the frustration and hopes of finding my daughter are far gone and replaced with love and understanding of knowing each other. The similarities between us are amazing.

We truly thank you from our hearts.

Chris,

I wanted to give you an update. I contacted J as soon as I hung up the phone with you. She was SO excited! We talked for 2 hours, and her daughter was texting R in AZ. Turns out R and I look very much alike. The 3 of us are so similar in so many ways! I did own up to how I found them (through Kinsolving), and they didn't care..they were just glad I found them. I spoke with R for over an hour last night as well, and I will be making a trip to Arizona sometime soon to meet her. We are all connected now, and all beyond our wildest dreams, thanks to you guys! C doesn't have much to do with them, so I'm not optimistic there. They let her know about me, and I will let her make contact if that's what she desires. If not, I have more than I imagined. As for A...I do not have a desire to contact her at all. And I'm good with that decision. Apparently I was the lucky one who made it out. Anyhow, that's my update, and again, thank you for EVERYTHING!!

WOW OH WOW-this is just amazing. I had no idea you could get all of this info. Thank you,Chris so much. So much. You have no idea what this means to us.It was surprising to see she did end up a nurse! There was no mention of children-would they have shown if she had any? It's going to take us awhile to process all of this and then make a plan for contact which we are really nervous about. Any ideas how to proceed will be greatly appreciated. Again there aren't enough words to thank you all.
