Hi Chris,

Wow!!! I have had this info for 24 hours now and I am still in such shock. I didn't sleep well last night as tears just kept rolling out of my eyes. I have been trying to figure out what to say to you to show my appreciation. Thank you just is not enough. You have filled a piece of my heart and given me a part of myself back. I have no idea what to do next, so I am not doing anything yet. I know he is still so young and probably is not ready for me to be a part of his life. He may never be ready and I know that too. I do hope to find a way to make contact. I said from the day of his birth that I would find him when he was old enough to make his own decisions about meeting me or not. I have 2 daughters that I would love to be able to have meet their brother some day. I have you to thank for making all of this possible.

I would love any advice you have to offer as I am sure you have had many people that you have helped give you feed back on how they made contact.

From the bottom of my heart Thank You!!!! You have given me a gift that I can never repay.

Love,

Hi Chris,

It has been 3 years since you found my birth family in April 2008.

I met some of my siblings (I'm 1 of 10 remember) last summer in North Car. I hope to get together with my sister who lives in Syracuse soon. She and I look alot alike more than any of my other siblings,even though we have different fathers.

This has been the best experience, and I can't thank you enough.

Happy Easter!

Dear Chris,

You truly are a miracle worker! You were able to accomplish in 48 hours what I have tried to do on my own for seventeen years. I can't believe I finally have my original birth name and the name and address of my birth mother. I will be forever grateful.

I also want to say a couple of things about your search fee in the hopes that it might help others who are thinking about searching:

1) I have always said that there are two things I have dreamed about for most of my adult life: my wedding day and finding my birth mother. I had the perfect wedding to a wonderful man fourteen years ago. It was a very, very simple wedding but I am sure that we spent a lot more than $3,500. (ofcourse with the special it was only $3,000 & thank you for that also) Your fee is a mere fraction of what anyone spends these days on even the simplest wedding.

2) My best friend in New York is a midwife. Somehow when I was telling her that I had hired you, the amount of search fee came up. She told me that $3,500 is exactly what she and her partners charge for a birth. We both thought that was pretty special - this experience really is a birth/rebirth in many ways for anyone who is searching.

I had a contract from you for five years before I did anything with it. I am so glad I finally took this step. I highly recommend you to anyone who has been struggling with a search on their own. It is absolutely worth it.

Thank you again. You are doing good work for many people.

Sincerely,
WD (NY)

We have compared all the inforamtion I have (which was not much) but dates and circumstances, as I remember them matches. We have agreed to meet to come togehter on the best way to tell my daughter. Thank you Chris, I will let you know when everything takes place. This is the best money I have ever spent. I will soon be retiring, can I work for you :)? God bless you!!
